

2705 S. W. English Court,
Portland 1, Oregon,
February 12, 1955.

Mr. George Goodrick,
Interior Department Building,
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Goodrick:

Please inform me immediately whether you or anyone else received a blind copy of a letter dated February 8, 1955, written to me by Wayne Coe. It is the all time low and last word in dirty pool and trying to hit below the belt. It is composed mainly of lies, distortions, exaggerations, insults, innuendos, and the like. It is the work of either a very desperate man or a common fool. It is libelous and slanderous. It is a vicious and malicious assault on my character and integrity. It is proof of the character of the man who wrote it. It shows how low he will stoop. It shows that he would stop at nothing to try to discredit someone. Of course, he had some accomplices. I do not intend to let him get by with this. Even though the letter was written on Tuesday it was not handed to me until Thursday. I intend to reply to his letter in writing.

Sincerely yours,

George F. Keller, M. D.